Scripture Union Queensland Events

Every year, over 1,000 SU Qld volunteers run 80 camps across the state. Our camps provide 3,300 children and teenagers with a fun-filled, positive time away from home. We aim to provide a quality holiday program, meeting the physical, social, emotional and spiritual needs of each participant. Every camp sets aside a time for faith discussions, where participants have a chance to explore the claims of the Christian Faith and ponder the bigger questions about life.

Child Protection Statement of Commitment

SU Qld is committed to the safety and holistic wellbeing of all children and young people involved on our events. To ensure that children and young people are kept safe from harm, our staff and volunteers are required to possess a current blue card; agree to adhere to a code of conduct when working with children; and undergo training in child safety. SU Qld takes child protection and safety seriously and consequently has policies and procedures in place to ensure that your child has the best possible experience with us.

Privacy

Protecting your privacy is important to us. The information we seek allows us to manage risk, provide reasonable care and administrate your involvement in our program. We are careful to keep your information confidential, and provide it only to those agents acting on behalf of SU QLD who need it to enable them to perform their agreed activities (e.g. First Aid officer). We will not use your information for other purposes. You are welcome to contact our office or visit www.suqld.org.au in relation to issues regarding your personal information and for a copy of our Privacy Policy.

We only ask for information that is necessary for the purposes outlined in this statement. In some circumstances if you don't provide us with all requested information you could miss the opportunity to be involved in our program.

Registration

On rare occasions a camp may need to be cancelled for reasons beyond our control (eg: low camper enrolment, matters of safety and care, etc.). In these situations we will endeavour to place your child on another camp or organise a refund.

- A Camper Letter will be mailed prior to camp, including more details about the program, what to bring and site contact details. The Event Director will may also include a form for you to complete regarding travel arrangements and Medication to be taken while on camp (if applicable).

- Some financial help may be given in cases of genuine need - enquiries can be made through the Event Director.
- Bookings cannot be made over the telephone, though enquiries are most welcome.
- SU Qld may withhold a late cancellation fee.
- SU Qld reserves the right to reject applications.

Your Agreement with Scripture Union Queensland

I am aware in agreeing to this document for my child's participation in this program that certain elements of the program could be physically and emotionally demanding. Furthermore, I understand that certain inherent risks and dangers may exist in the activities in which my child will be participating. I acknowledge that while Scripture Union and its leaders will make every reasonable effort to minimise exposure to known risks, all hazards and dangers associated with these activities cannot be foreseen or may be beyond the control of Scripture Union, its leaders and staff. In the event of any emergency where my nominated contact people are unavailable:

- I authorise the leaders to obtain medical advice and/or assistance which they deem necessary.
- I further authorise qualified practitioners to administer anaesthetic if required.
- I accept all operation, blood transfusion and/or anaesthetic risks involved in the event that such procedures are deemed necessary.
- I accept the responsibility for payment and agree to pay medical, transport and any other related expenses.
- I confirm that the information contained in this application is true and correct.
- I agree to inform the leader of any change to these details.

I understand that the camp leaders will take all responsible care of my child whilst at camp and that SU Qld or its representatives will not be liable in any injury or accident, or for damage or loss of property. I give my consent for and agree to pay for any necessary medical treatment. I understand that in cases of unacceptable behaviour, campers will be sent home from camp.
