

Child Safety Code of Conduct

All individuals coming under the scope of the SU QLD Child Protection Policy are responsible for the safety and wellbeing of children and young people who engage with SU QLD, and are expected to act in accordance with this Code of Conduct in any (physical and online) interactions with children and young people under the age of 18 years.

- I will:
- Act in accordance with SU QLD's child safety and wellbeing policies and procedures at all times.
 - Behave respectfully, courteously and ethically towards children and their families and towards other staff.
 - Listen and respond to the views and concerns of children, particularly if they communicate (verbally or non-verbally) that they do not feel safe or well.
 - Promote the human rights, safety and wellbeing of all children in SU QLD.
 - Demonstrate appropriate personal and professional boundaries.
 - Consider and respect the diverse backgrounds and needs of children.
 - Create an environment that promotes and enables children's participation and is welcoming, culturally safe and inclusive for all children and their families.
 - Involve children in making decisions about activities, policies and processes that concern them wherever possible.
 - Contribute, where appropriate, to SU QLD's policies, discussions, learning and reviews about child safety and wellbeing.
 - Identify and mitigate risks to children's safety and wellbeing as required by SU QLD's risk assessment and management policy or process.
 - Respond to any concerns or complaints of child harm or abuse promptly and in line with SU QLD's policy and procedure for receiving and responding to complaints.
 - Report all suspected or disclosed child harm or abuse as required by legislation and by SU QLD's policy and procedure on internal and external reporting.
 - Comply with SU QLD's protocols on communicating with children.
 - Comply with all relevant legislation and SU QLD's policies and procedures on record keeping and information sharing.

I will NOT:

- Engage in any unlawful activity with or in relation to a child.
- Engage in any activity that is likely to physically, sexually or emotionally harm a child.
- Unlawfully discriminate against any child or their family members.
- Be alone with a child unnecessarily.
- Arrange personal contact, including online contact, with children I am working with for a purpose unrelated to the organisation's] activities.
- Disclose personal or sensitive information about a child, including images of a child, unless the child and their parent or legal guardian consent or unless I am required to do so by SU QLD's policy and procedure on reporting.
- Use inappropriate language in the presence of children, or show or provide children with access to inappropriate images or material.
- Work with children while under the influence of alcohol or prohibited drugs.
- Ignore or disregard any suspected or disclosed child harm or abuse.

If I think this Code of Conduct has been breached by another person in SU QLD I will:

- Act to prioritise the best interests of children.
- Take actions promptly to ensure that children are safe.
- Promptly report any concerns to my manager, SU QLD's Child Safety Officer, the Chief Executive Officer or another manager or leader in SU QLD.
- Follow SU QLD's policies and procedures for receiving and responding to complaints and concerns.
- Comply with legislative requirements on reporting if relevant, and with SU QLD's policy and procedure on internal and external reporting.
